

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

Executive Order 2007- 22
Establishing the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections Advisory Board

[M07-524]

WHEREAS, the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) is responsible for juveniles adjudicated delinquent and committed to its jurisdiction by the county juvenile courts; and

WHEREAS, the people of Arizona expect continued public safety and the safety of our youth; and

WHEREAS, the ADJC has reached substantial compliance on the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act (CRIPA) measures set out by the U.S. Department of Justice; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the State of Arizona to have the advice of a board constituted to provide guidance and oversight on ADJC policy and procedures, including access to information on individual youth when it relates to serious incidents or concerns;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State, hereby order and direct the following:

1. There is hereby established the ADJC Advisory Board.
2. The membership of the ADJC Advisory Board shall be comprised of no fewer than twelve members and no more than fifteen members, each of whom shall be appointed by and serve without compensation at the pleasure of, the Governor. To the extent practicable, the Governor shall consult with the Chief Justice of the Arizona Supreme Court in making appointments to the Board. To the extent practical, the Board members shall include the following:

* ARIZONA ALCOHOL AND DRUG ADDICTION RECOVERY MONTH ***

[M07-516]

WHEREAS, 22.2 million people in the United States have faced a substance use disorder in the past year, and all deserve to experience the many benefits of recovery; and

WHEREAS, treatment reduces reported job problems, including incomplete work and absenteeism, by an average of 75 percent; and

WHEREAS, treatment is cost effective, with some measurements showing a benefit-to-cost ratio of up to 7:1, with substance use disorder treatment costing $1,583 per person on average and having a monetary benefit to society of nearly $11,487 for each person treated; and

WHEREAS, we must recognize the financial savings associated with treatment services, and ensure that such services are readily available to those who need assistance; and

WHEREAS, cost and insurance barriers present obstacles to those who need access to treatment facilities and want to re-establish their place in the community; and

WHEREAS, it is critical that we educate our community members and local businesses that substance use disorders are a treatable, yet serious health care problem, and by taking steps to address it, as well as provide support for the families and children of those with these disorders, we can save both lives and dollars; and

WHEREAS, to help achieve this goal, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy, and Recovery Event Committees across the State of Arizona invite all residents of Arizona to participate in National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim September, 2007 as
